Rural Clergy Training
June 23, 2015

Educating community clergy about how they can support Veterans and their family members through the readjustment process.

Many Veterans and their family members seek help for their problems from clergy. An upcoming event in Tuskegee can help prepare you to support them.

Rural and smaller-town Veterans in particular have limited choices for healthcare. As a member of the clergy, you and your house of worship are an important contact point for Veterans in your community. Sometimes clergy members aren’t aware of the Veterans in their congregation or how they might help a Veteran and their family following deployment. Clergy may recognize Veterans who are struggling in their return to civilian life, but not know how to support them.

The National Chaplain Center of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and Tuskegee VA Medical Center would like to invite you to attend a free interactive training in Tuskegee, Alabama. This event will be held on Tuesday, June 23rd from 8:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. at the Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center.

Training topics will include:

- Identifying potential conflicts between civilian and military cultures.
- Identifying actions community clergy can take to assist military personnel and their families with a healthy adjustment to a civilian culture.
- Types of common military events that can cause adjustment problems for military personnel and the psychiatric and psychological responses that often follow from them.
- Identifying the relationship between spirituality and “meaning making.”
- The importance of Personal Narratives and Past, Present and Future Stories.
- Identifying pastoral responses and resources for clergy and their congregations.

This workshop will be held Tuesday, June 23rd from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center, Ballroom C, 1 Booker T. Washington Blvd, Tuskegee, AL 36088.

Check-in at 8:30 a.m. Lunch will be provided at 11:30 a.m.
